

Lessons from Latin America:

OSCAR OLIVERA

Friends Meeting House
Ship Street

14th July 7.30pm

“Water is a right for us, not something to be sold...We are preparing ourselves for something big” - Oscar Olivera, renowned for his role in overturning water privatisation in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

All Welcome: FREE

Chair: Julian Saurin, Sussex University

Including a film from the Bolivian Solidarity Campaign

Organised through an alliance of: Brighton Hands off Venezuela • Brighton & Hove World Development Movement • Sussex University Action Network • Brighton Against Sweatshops • Sussex Action for Peace • Brighton & Hove and Mid Sussex Friends of the Earth • BPEC • UNISON • University of Brighton Branch Committee • Sussex University Student Union • Frontline: Latin America